The Exam Glove Catalog

EMPOWERING PEOPLE TO PERFORM AT THEIR BEST ACROSS MANY INDUSTRIES.

For over 15 years, you've been the driving force behind the success of Aurelia Gloves, making us the preferred provider of examination gloves in all of North America. You told us what's important to you—quality hand protection that provides the right comfort, fit, and sensitivity needed to deliver superior patient care. So we've made it our mission to manufacture a premium quality glove line that provides the protection you need and the comfort you deserve, without charging premium cost. We look forward to continuing to serve as a valuable resource to the healthcare community and a trusted partner to everyone who touches our products.

NO MATTER THE INDUSTRY, WE HAVE YOU COVERED.

COMFORT

Examination gloves need to feel good over an extended period of time. Our gloves do just that, ensuring a proper fit that flexes and stretches with the movements of your hand and reduces muscle fatigue. With sizes that range from extra small to extra extra large, and a fit that conforms to the subtle nuances of fingers and palms, our gloves are built to feel and function like the skin you're in.

SAFETY

Aurelia gloves are manufactured with the attention to quality and detail that has earned the respect of healthcare professionals everywhere. Our gloves conform to the highest standards set by the American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) and are subject to our own rigorous quality assurance testing to ensure dependable barrier protection.

SENSITIVITY

Tactile sensitivity allows you to manipulate instruments and materials effectively and to experience realistic feeling during the most intricate procedures. Our patented Honeycomb® Textured surfacing provides the highest tactile sensitivity and ensures exceptional gripping action in both wet and dry conditions. We offer products constructed from the newest ultra-thin, yet durable, textured material, providing a difference that you can feel.
